Botanico Dinning Hall & Balcony

The Summerhouse evokes a sense of homely yet stylish comfort. The timberwork and fretwork convey the classic elegance of clean geometric lines, and accentuate the stately proportions of the bungalow.

A key feature that was introduced to the upper-story dining hall is the mirrored ceiling of tapered and angled panes echoing the geometric patterns on the original windows, and bolstering the natural light coming into the space.

The culinary team at The Summerhouse expertly blends the sizzle of the grill with the enchanting allure of Asian cuisine.

At the heart of Botanico lies the marriage of the grill's artistry with the essence of Asian gastronomy. Each dish is a testament to our commitment to the farm-to-table concept, sourcing the freshest ingredients to ensure a culinary experience that reflects the purity of nature.
